Benton, Jr., At the Dedication of the Bradford Public Library Building: Bradford, Vermont, July 4, 1895 Two sentiments dominate the day, - loyalty to the nation and love of learning. The one is typified by the flag with its resplendent folds and glittering stars, the other by the beautiful building which we have met to dedicate to sound learning and popular education. Our first duty is to acknowledge our obligation to the man to whose generous gift Bradford owes its first permanent library building. John Lunn Woods was born at Corinth, Orange county, Vermont, February 11, 1821. He was the third of the five children of Oliver Woods and his wife, whose maiden name was Lucinda Lamb. Oliver Woods was a farmer owning a farm of considerable size, and he died when John was about thirteen years old. Mrs. Woods then took charge of and managed the farm. John was named for his uncle, John Lunn Woods, who kept a country store at Woodsville, New Hampshire, and when the boy was...
