Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Murder is No Stranger is a story told in dramatic irony as the reader knows all along who the guilty party is. A college English professor Samantha Mitchell, extremely independent by nature, is confronted by a series of events that involve her male friends. She insists she does not have a boyfriend, and so she dates several eligible males, one of whom is obsessed with making her his alone. In the course of events, Logan Miller, the man in question, uses various tactics to impress Ms. Mitchell to become his one and only. Ms. Mitchell also has problems with a male college student in her required English Research class. In addition, a former college friend returns to town, further complicating the number of males competing for her attention. There s much more before Ms. Mitchell discovers the real Logan Miller and finally decides she s ready for a real boyfriend. Barbara Studebaker Arnold is a retired Language Arts teacher with an avid interest in reading and writing. Barbara lives in Enon, Ohio with her husband of 50 years and two very spoiled cats. She has three grown married children, three grandchildren, and two step-grandchildren. She has a Master of Science Degree in Education from the University of Dayton. She served as a substitute teacher before teaching 8th grade Language Arts in the Greenon Local School System for 26 years. She had several supplemental jobs as well as the drama club advisor at Indian Valley Middle School and Greenon High School for 25 years. Now retired from teaching, she has time to pursue the many activities she had no time for earlier. She enjoys volunteering, painting, traveling...
