Women and the Conquest of California, 1542-1840: Codes of Silence

By Virginia M. Bouvier

University of Arizona Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Women and the Conquest of California, 1542-1840: Codes of Silence, Virginia M. Bouvier, Studies of the Spanish conquest in the Americas traditionally have explained European-Indian encounters in terms of such factors as geography, timing, and the charisma of individual conquistadores. Yet by reconsidering this history from the perspective of gender roles and relations, we see that gender ideology was a key ingredient in the glue that held the conquest together and in turn shaped indigenous behavior toward the conquerors. This book tells the hidden story of women during the missionization of California. It shows what it was like for women to live and work on that frontier and how race, religion, age, and ethnicity shaped female experiences. It explores the suppression of women's experiences and cultural resistance to domination, and reveals the many codes of silence regarding the use of force at the missions, the treatment of women, indigenous ceremonies, sexuality, and dreams. Virginia Bouvier has combed a vast array of sources including mission records, journals of explorers and missionaries, novels of chivalry, and oral histories and has discovered that female participation in the colonization of California was greater and...
