

Nick and Norah's Infinite Playlist

By Rachel Cohn, David Levithan

Paperback. Book Condition: New. Not Signed; The sexy, funny roller coaster of a love story from David Levithan and Rachel Cohn, which inspired the beloved film starring Michael Cera and Kat Dennings. Nick and Norah are both suffering from broken hearts. So when Nick sees the girl who dumped him walk in with a new guy he asks the strange girl next to him to be his girlfriend for the next five minutes. Norah would do anything to avoid conversation with the not-friend girl who dumped Nick, and get over the Evil Ex whom Norah never quite broke up with. And so she agrees. What follows is an epic first date between two people who are just trying to figure out who they want to be - and where the next great band is playing. This story plays out over one unforgettable night in New York. One of the great YA novels about falling in love, for everyone who had their hearts broken by Rainbow Rowell's Eleanor & Park or Jandy Nelson's I'll Give You the Sun. David and Rachel's other collaborations include Naomi and Eli's No Kiss List and The 12 Days of Dash and Lily. David Levithan is...
