

Walk Good - Travels to Negril, Jamaica: Travels to Negril, Jamaica (Paperback)

By Roland Reimer

Createspace, United States, 2002. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 211 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Walk Good is an adventure travel story chronicling the experiences of the author in Negril, Jamaica. It is an escape to the sunny beaches, the seas and the mountain back roads of the island. The culture of the island, including the food, the music, a smattering of history and the character of the people form the backdrop of the story. Ride the bus on the infamous long and bumpy road from Montego Bay to Negril. Take in the sights, sounds and smells along the way, enjoy the rustic beauty of the roadside villages. Ride the bus as it negotiates the myriad obstacles that are common to Jamaican roads; cows, goats, potholes, big ladies with baskets on their heads and oncoming traffic in our lane. On the beach in Negril we talk to an old minstrel who sings a Bob Marley tune during a glorious Caribbean sunset. We laugh with the vendors who work on the beach, including one tall thin cigarette vendor who looks like The Cat in the Hat (Cigarrrrreeeeettts!). Meet Reddie Freddie , a wooden...
