Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The New England Connection is an eighty-thousand word suspense story in the genre of Mary Higgins Clark, Ken Follett and John Grisham. This fictional story develops intrigue without excessive sex, violence, or profanity. The criminals, a young man and woman, have made the decision to live outside the law for their excitement and profit. In a stolen van, equipped with sophisticated video equipment, they tour New England abducting young women for the production of pornographic movies they hope to sell. Unfortunately, one of their victims dies from an overdose of the drug they used to sedate her. They then commit the heinous crime of robbing the family while they attend their daughter s funeral. In a different state they commit another murder, this time premeditated. The criminals continue to travel to different New England states kidnapping and abusing their victims. As they continue this mayhem, police are trying to identify the perpetrators using any and all police systems. The criminals have no police records on file. The Murphy family are each working on open cases involving these criminals unaware of...
